Hold Funeral Services Today For Walter Schoeneck

Funeral services for Walter Schoeneck, 55, fall victim who died Monday, May 20, at Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. John's church, Mokena with the Rev. William J. Riemann officiating. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery.

Mr. Schoeneck was injured May 1 when he fell from a ladder at the Hunter Foundry where he was employed as a maintenance man. At the time it was estimated he fell 10 or 12 feet, landing on a concrete floor. His injuries included a basal skull fracture, a broken shoulder, several broken ribs and severe damage to the left lung.

Mr. Schoeneck was born June 2, 1901 in Frankfort township and had resided in this area all his life. He was a member of Matteson lodge No. 175, AF&AM the Wayfarer club of Mokena, the Rock Island Craftsmen and Joliet lodge No. 300, Loyal Order of Moose.

Besides his widow, Erna, Mr. Schoeneck is survived by a stepson and step daughter, Leonard and Judith Hemmrich; two brothers, Elmer, of New Lenox and Norman of Homewood, and two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Coborn, Mokena and Mrs. Mabel Cherep, Blue Island.

Sells $180,000 Bonds; Hansen-Petersen Has Low Bid on Building Project

After formal approval is given of a bid submitted by a Joliet construction firm, work on the Lincoln-Way high school addition will be started and is expected to be completed by mid year.

Hansen & Petersen Construction company's figure of $156,238 was the apparent low bid and the board is expected to make formal award of the contract at a special meeting preceding the commencement exercises June 4.

The work covers an addition of four class rooms, some alterations to the present building to provide additional space for the science department and completion of the auditorium.

The bids were submitted at the board meeting in the school last Thursday night. Before the building bids were considered the board disposed of the $180,000 in bonds authorized by referendum this spring.

Nine firms bid on the bonds and the lowest net interest rate offered was 3.85 per cent. This price was submitted by Channer Securities Co. of Chicago, and the bonds were sold to them.

The next best bid was that of McDougal and Condon Co., Chicago, with an interest rate of 3.91 per cent. The high bid was 4.024 per cent, offered by H. C. Spear & Sons, Chicago.

The board was gratified that its bond issue attracted as many bidders as it did and the members and the architects are well pleased with the 3.85 per cent interest rate. The interest on bonds has been high for several months and this is one of the best rates offered in the region for many months, it was said.

Six firms responded to the request for bids on the building. Hansen & Petersen's bid of $156,238 was broken down into two figures, at the request of the school board, $93,603 for the addition and alterations, and $57,635 for completion of the auditorium.

The other bidders on the building and their total bids were:

Molaschi Const., Joliet, $161,983.
Robert J. Regan, Joliet, $167,195.
Shepherd Const., Joliet, $168,478.
J. A. Jemmler, Chicago, $185,500.

Public Can Aid Trinity School

Interest in the retarded child is on the up and because of that a number of affairs are scheduled as a benefit for the Trinity school for retarded children. They are:

The Mokena Lions will sponsor their second annual Pancake day this Saturday, May 25, in the VFW hall in Mokena.

The Tri-Ex club of Joliet will conduct a card party this evening, May 23 at 8 p.m. in the Elk's building, Joliet.

The Will County Parents' group will sponsor a rummage sale to be held May 31 and June 1, next Friday and Saturday, at 667 Collins st., Joliet. The sale will be in progress from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Anyone desiring to give articles for this sale may call Mrs. Albert Ziegler, New Lenox 8529 or Mrs. Butler Beattie, New Lenox 5126. All the above activities are for the benefit of the Trinity school.

Mokena Lions to Aid Retarded Children Thru Sale of Pancakes

Saturday—May 25—is Pancake Day in Mokena.

That is the day when Lions club members—under the supervision of Aunt Jemima in person—will flip hotcakes from early morning until late afternoon. Half of the proceeds will go for the schooling of retarded children.

Weather will not be a factor this year as the Lions will use the VFW hall on Wolf road for the affair. In previous years a tent was used.

Serving will be from 6 a.m. to 3 p.m. and, of course, everyone in the area is invited.

One of the features of the event this year will be a pancake eating contest. Adults are barred from the competition and by such action the Lions are showing they can be like the fox too.

Anyone who has watched growing boys and girls munch their way thru a day knows they can outeat most grown-up and probably could run a dead-heat against such redoubtable trenchermen as harvest hands and lumberjacks.

Therefore, when the Lions limited entry in the pancake eating contest to boys and girls of 12 years of age and under they are dealing with eaters. They will not hit their full stride for another couple of years, of course, but they are expected to perform some gastronomic feats, come Saturday.

The winners will have their pick of various prizes in the order of their finish. The children entered in the contest must be accompanied by an adult.

The pancakes are being served on an "all-you-can-eat" basis so no extra cover charge is involved.

Part of the proceeds from the sale of pancakes will be used by the Lions to finance their various charitable and community projects, but 50 per cent of the net receipts will go to Trinity school for retarded children.

Mokena MYF Will Wash Cars Saturday

In order to meet their subscription to the improvement of the Mokena Methodist church, the Youth Fellowship of the church will conduct a 'car wash' this Saturday, May 25.

This car wash will be held on the grounds of the church and will be in effect from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The members are hoping there will be a goodly number of people who have cars that need washing and will bring them to the church for this group to wash.

Death Claims Henry Boleman, Mokena Druggist

Henry B. Boleman, 58, Mokena druggist, prominent in civic and community affairs, died Monday, May 20, at St. Joseph hospital, Joliet, following a brief illness.

He was stricken with a severe heart attack at his home last Friday morning about 1 o'clock and an inhalator crew from the Mokena fire department worked until 4 a. m. before he had recovered sufficiently to be moved. Firemen accompanied him in the ambulance and administered oxygen during the journey to the hospital.

Mr. Boleman was kept under oxygen at the hospital until Sunday when his condition was believed to be improved to the point that the treatment could be discontinued. He suffered another attack early Monday morning, however, and died about 3:30 o'clock.

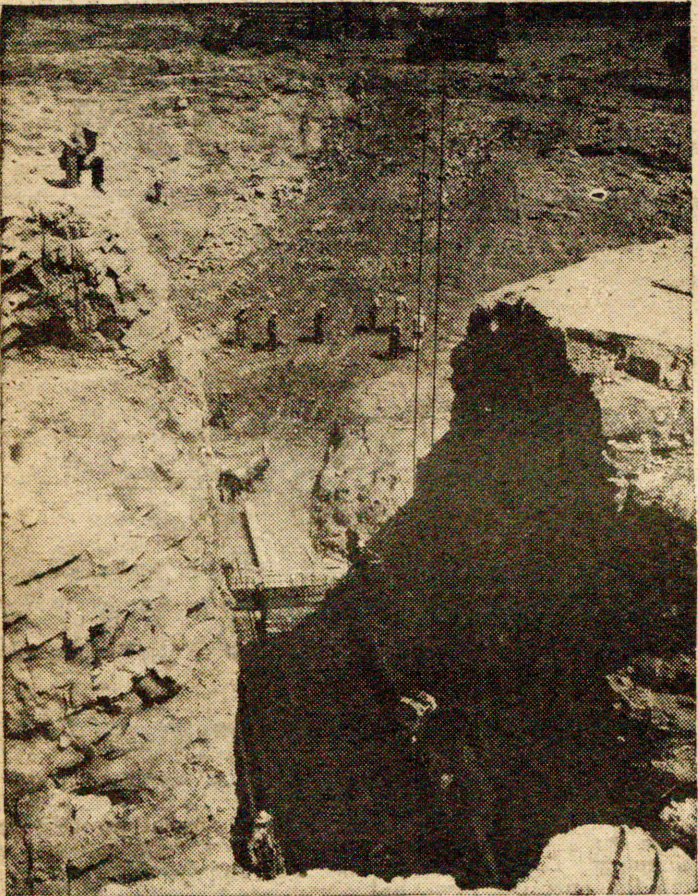

Mr. Boleman suffered an injury to an eye last Memorial day when the car in which he was riding was struck from the rear while it was halted near Chicago Heights. He had been in poor health since then but was able to carry on with his business until stricken last Friday.

Mr. Boleman was born Feb. 10, 1899 at Rockville, Ind. He attended the University of Indiana and Valparaiso university where he obtained a degree in pharmacy.

He was a friendly, accommodating man and was well liked in the community. Mr. Boleman was a member of the Mokena Business Men's Association, the Mokena Association of Commerce, the Will County Pharmaceutical Association, the Chicago Retail Druggists Association and the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's church, Mokena.

He was married in June, 1933 at Chicago to Miss Lillian Van Antwerp, of Starland, Ill. Besides the widow, Mr. Boleman is survived by three daughters, Jeanne, a teacher at Ann Rutledge school, Lincoln Estates, Marilyn and Patricia, all of Mokena, and two sisters, Mrs. Gil (Continued to page 2)

Washington

"Back Home" Revolt!

The most important news thus far this session of Congress is continuance of the "back home" revolt against the $71.8 billion budget.

If the revolt loses steam, Congress may falter in its economy efforts—if the "back home" demands for economy keep up, there's a good chance for real accomplishment.

The fight to cut the budget will continue until June 30—usual Congressional deadline for completion of action on appropriation bills.

Congressional savings thus far—chiefly in the House—are placed at $1,140,000,000. Economy bloc leaders hope to cut the budget by at least $3-billion.

An avalanche of letters to senators and representatives protesting against huge expenditures—demanding relief from onerous taxes, protesting radical New-Fair Deal measures—also has acted as a brake on some other legislation.

The revolt against reckless expenditures has astonished members of congress, given conservatives new heart, restrained the 'welfare state' advocates and the political big spenders.

Across The Counter . . .

"I like my insurance in good, strong, dependable companies, only," said Mr. Newcomer. "What ones do you use?"

I told him and then showed him their financial statements and ratings. All were rated high.

He nodded. "That's O.K. Those companies look dependable and I know they must be. At least my friends tell me you wouldn't represent any other kind."

I smiled and he continued. "I may appear cautious to you. But believe me, I learned the hard way. Back in Omaha, a fast-talking insurance company representative told me to forget my worries. His company was just as good, only cheaper. Well, I did forget about it until I had a loss. Then the company adjuster said to take the figure he offered, or else. It was only a matter of $200 so I settled, but I've never forgotten it.

"Good companies are important," I replied, "and so are good agents. It helps to get the insurance contract written right to start with. Then it pays to have a friendly advisor, and an experienced negotiator in event of a loss."

Maybe YOU, like Mr. Newcomer, want dependable insurance. If so, stop in. That's the only kind we sell!

CLEAN-UP, FIX-UP CHORES

The new administration in Tinley Park is faced with quite a few tasks of long standing that could be included in the current clean-up, fix-up campaign. The picture upper right shows the need of a clean-up to rid Tinley Memorial park of such unsightly junk as these rusted cans, bottles and other rubbish. The water scene above is not a lake shore shot at some resort but lack of drainage in the vicinity of 177th st. and 68th Ct. At lower (r) is a section of sidewalk on Oak Park ave., at 172nd street, that needs more than a bit of fixing and next to it, looking east on 177th from Oak Park ave., are some craters and chuckholes that put a strain on springs, tires and temper. 5,000 Ask State For New Auto License Plates

Five thousand Illinois motorists have taken advantage of the motor vehicle license plate manufacturer's offer to replace plates on which the paint has peeled. Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier said today.

The offer was made two weeks ago when laboratory tests showed that the peeling was caused by a combination of a cleaning fluid used to prepare the aluminum and the aluminum itself. Steel plates have not been affected.

Secretary Carpentier renewed his request that any motorist whose plates are peeling to write to his office in Springfield giving the license number. Hemp and Company of Macomb the manufacturer, will replace the plate immediately. A postcard is all that is needed, Mr. Carpentier said.

J. L. Hemp, president of the company, said the plates will be replaced without cost to motorists or to the state, since it is the responsibility of the firm to replace defective plates.

The defective plate is to be destroyed as soon as the replacement arrives, Secretary Carpentier said.

WILL IT COME UP?—That is a question many motorists ask when they feel their cars plunging down into some water-filled chuck-hole while traversing various streets and highways. This particular picture was taken on 177th st. near 66th Ct., in Tinley Park, but as far as the chuck-holes are concerned it could have been taken anywhere in Chicagoland, including the state highways. (Marv Smith photo)

Later the hard nickel-plating was found to provide good resistance to abrasion from gravel and other debris encountered by land-based aircraft.

Monuments To Thoughtfulness

Community Mausoleums, as planned for St. John's Cemetery, Mokena, are being built throughout the United States.

As land increases in value and the cost of ground burial with cement vaults, etc. continues to rise, thoughtful people are purchasing mausoleum crypts which conserve cemetery space and their estates by eliminating excessive cemetery expenses both at the time of need and through the centuries.

In large communities and cemeteries mausoleums are being built by religious groups, cemetery associations, or insurance groups. The Community Mausoleum Plan, under which crypts are reserved before need and all are constructed at one time, is the only method whereby the advantages of entombment in a beautiful memorial can be provided for the people of smaller communities and the identity of their cemeteries maintained at a cost to the subscribers that is less than average ground burial.

The initial survey to determine the size of the Mokena Mausoleum is almost completed and July 15, 1957 has been tentatively set as the closing date for crypt reservations. If you have not been contacted and given details of cost and construction you should request those details now in order to have time to thoughtfully study this plan. Information is available from Mrs. Willis Liston of Liston's Sweet Shop, Mokena 2081 or John R. Lilly, 214 Ashland Ave., River Forest, Ill.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
The editorial "Defend Your Pocketbook", which appeared in your May 16 issues, apparently was a release of the Illinois Press Association.

The "old abbreviated type of report" used prior to 1955 consisted of a complete chronological list, receipt by receipt and expenditure by expenditure, of every transaction, and was posted at the annual election of the voter's inspection. (Obviously that report could cover only the period from the first day of the fiscal year to the day of election, but the details for the remainder of the year were always readily available.)

The work involved in compiling the School Treasurer's report as now required is staggering and the cost of publishing it is wasted.

That paragraph referring to a School Board "having fun and games with tax money" is uncalled for, in my opinion. A school board operates on a sound business basis. A tentative budget is prepared, based upon estimated receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year. Your paper will soon carry an advertisement that the proposed budget will be available for public inspection for a specified 30 day period at a specified place. Then, your paper will carry a notice of public hearing for the budget. Following the hearing, the school board will adopt the budget and levy tax based on requirements indicat-

The American Way SEED OF CORRUPTION

By Willis E. Stone

(Editors Note: Willis E. Stone is author of the "Proposed 23rd Amendment" and President of the American Progress Foundation, Los Angeles.)

The fantastic empire called the Tennessee Valley Authority stands as an example of just how far bureaucratic empire building can grow once the seed of corruption is planted.

In 1916 the federal government was not in competition with its people. It was devoted to the basic function of government and regulating, and was therefore considered the ideal government by all the peoples of the world.

Then came the clouds of war, in preparation for which the Congress adopted the 1916 National Defense Act. One tiny clause in that Act empowered the President to determine "the best, cheapest and most available means" for the production of nitrates and other products for munitions and fertilizers.

The bureaucratic conquest of American business is based upon this single clause which was taken as a grant of authority, not to find "the best, cheapest and most available means," but to launch an empire at taxpayers' expense.

A coffer dam was quickly thrown across the Tennessee River at the town of Muscle Shoals, Alabama. Then came the fabulously extravagant erection of two nitrate plants.

Wilson Dam, which was to furnish the power to operate the nitrate plants, was finished in 1925, seven long years after the war was over. Then it was found that one of these nitrate plants—built to provide "the best, cheapest and most available means"—was spectacularly unsuccessful and the other one so ineffective that it stood idle for many years.

The capacity of TVA to build a vast bureaucratic empire from such a meager beginning testifies to the magnitude of the force opposing our individual enterprise system, and shows how the seeds of corruption flourish when nourished on tax dollars.

About two billion of our tax dollars have fed TVA. The FERTILIZER program is now but a segment of the monster which sprang from it, but it is a very sizable segment.

By the peculiar accounting methods employed by the TVA FERTILIZER program, such things as normal operating costs, interest, rents and taxes are not considered. Thus it was contended that a profit of $492,000 was earned in 1954, with hopes for larger profits in 1955 and 1956.

The Budget of the United States tells a different story. Page 213 of the 1956 Budget, and Page 227 of the 1957 Budget, disclose that this "profitable" fertilizer business gets a big appropriation of your tax dollars every year in order to stay in business. In 1954 the appropriation was $2,232,219. In 1955 it was $2,356,553. The 1956 estimate was $2,301,000 and for 1957 the estimate is $2,556,000—a four year total of nearly ten million tax dollars to promote a bureaucratic empire in direct competition with the fertilizer business of taxpaying citizens.

The Hoover Staff Study on Business Enterprises, page 15, recommends:

1. That TVA immediately cease all commercial sales of fertilizers.

2. That unneeded nitrogen and phosphate plant facilities be disposed of.

3. That all fertilizer research be placed under the agricultural department.

4. That the laws authorizing TVA to manufacture and sell fertilizer be repealed.

That would solve the FERTILIZER problem, but what of similar seeds of corruption sprouting in hundreds of other fields? We can get rid of all of them by simply outlawing the alien practice which produces them. This can be done when we get action on the "Proposed 23rd Amendment" now pending in Congress as H. J. Res. 123. It provides that:

The government of the United States shall not engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the constitution.

ed by the budget. At each regular monthly meeting (all school board meetings are open to the public), the bills are carefully considered, and approval for payment is by roll-call vote. From time to time, a budget report is submitted, and every effort is made to operate within the budget. While the providing of an excellent educational program for the youth is the one big concern of a school board, the board never loses sight of its responsibilities to the taxpayer.

You mention a "powerful educational lobby", but wasn't it the Illinois Press(ure) Association that sponsored the present law, requiring schools to pay to newspaper publishers money which should be used in the educational programs.

This letter is not intended as a criticism of the Semmler Newspapers, as they are to be commended for their ever-ready support of projects and programs involving the good of the communities served.

In conclusion, I should like to urge everyone to write his representative at Springfield to vote 'YES' for House Bill 613.

Your truly
L. F. Teague

Scout News

Tinley Park Girl Scouts

Intermediate Girl Scout troop 335 under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Cheney, has been busy finishing their year's work.

TROOP 40 MOKENA

Last week-end Troop 40 participated in the Louis Joliet "spring campout" held in Delwood Park in Lockport.

Troop 40 was represented by Don Alexander, quartermaster; Ken Lorenz, patrol leader; Dan Williams, scribe; Rich Majher, Jim Davies, Ron Badton, Don Heim, Ray Lorenze, Wayne Swanberg, Doug Arnold, Eric Jacobson and Bill Sluis.

After debating the weather for a week, the sun came out Friday afternoon and gave them a good send off.

Saturday the weather was favorable and numerous scoutcraft requirements were passed. In the afternoon there was some intermittent rain and improvised shelter had to be erected to shelter the cooks and the charcoal burners.

After the campfire in the day was topped off with cocoa, cookies and cake and then to bed. The rains increased, so did the wind. When it finally eased up, the leaders inspected the area and decided it would take too long for the clay under the sod to soak up the water and the greater part of the troop was transported back to Mokena. Ken Lorenz and Don Alexander remained in the area to protect troop equipment. The leaders were back in their sleeping bags by 4:30 a.m. and had just closed their eyes for what seemed like an instant when in came another storm. The rains and winds were quite heavy and by 8:30 a.m. there

Tinley Library Has Stock of "How-To" Books

Is the Tinley Park Community library only for the use of children? It is true they make up the bulk of the population using the library, but the library board points out there are many books for adults and urges that their use.

Besides adult fiction, there are many do-it-yourself books for the homeowner and homemaker. Some of the titles are: "Electric Fix-It Book" and "How To Build Your Own Garage", both of the Popular Mechanics Press; "Woodwork for the Beginner", "Farmer's Shop Book", "Chickens and How to Raise Them", "Gardening Made Easy", "Complete Book of Sewing", Mary Proctor's Book, "Easy to Make Fashion Accessories", "Complete Book of Knitting" and "Adventures in Plastics".

Generous contributors are donating practically new books to our collection. Through the efforts of our librarians these books are placed immediately on the shelves for circulation. Some of the most recent are: "Peace With God", by Betty Graham; "A Smattering of Ignorance", by Oscar Levant; "Papa Married a Mormon", by John D. Fitzgerald; "The Dawning of A Day," by Elizabeth Ogilvie; "Yonder", by Margaret Houston; The "Laughing Stranger", by Vena Delmar; and "Bhowani Junction", by John Masters. "Happy Lion" bookmarks are being given out to youngsters visiting the library.

was from one-half inch to two inches of standing water around most of the smaller tents and cooking area.

Thanks to the help of scouts' fathers and committeemen the soggy canvass and equipment was all returned to Mokena by Noon Sunday.

A good time was had by all, as far as it went and many gripes were voiced for calling it short but one has to weigh health, safety and well being along with experiences in unusual activities and choose the one that benefits the most parties.

Troop 40 qualified in the upper group and both patrols entered received the highest award possible.

The boys have had another experience, and this is one that will be looked upon as one camp-out to be remembered for some time to come.

Termites Start House Hunting and The House Hunted May Be Yours

The warm days of spring will soon start a house-hunting expedition that will cost the American public, mainly home owners, over $100,000,000 this year. The expedition is the annual flight of the subterranean termite. It will occur from the East Coast to the Rockies with the coming of warm weather.

This species of termite builds his colonies in damp and hidden spots, either underground or in moist wood. Every spring the explorers of the colony—both male and female—make their only appearance into daylight. They come poking up out of the ground or woodwork equipped with wings for the "wedding flight". They join hundreds of other termites in a swarm. Within two days they will start a new colony or return to their old one. But, before they go back underground, the termites leave their wings.

Wings Give Warning

These pieces of evidence can tell the home owner that his property is in danger. The wings are translucent and appear to have the same texture as the wings of a fly. In shape they are longer and more slender. Wings will usually be found in large numbers, and the spot where they are found will only be a few feet away from the colony.

Once back in the colony the termites will spend most of their time foraging for wood—the termite's bread of life. This search will be made by chewing exploratory tunnels thru the earth until they find wood. Once found the termites will eat out the inside of the timber until only the shell remains. The subterranean termite never breaks surface in his tunneling for fear of opening air passage to the colony, and thus drying it out.

Destructive Critters

When a colony of termites is searching for entrance into a house, their tunnels usually run along the concrete foundation. They cannot penetrate solid concrete, but they do tunnel up thru cracks into the wooden structures of the house.

Man finds his best defense against termites in chemical insecticides. Hundreds of new homes going up this year will have a chemical barrier against termites sprayed into the earth around the foundation. The barrier may be formed by dieltrin, a chemical that remains in the soil and protects the home for years.

A home owner who spots a swarm of termites or finds a cluster of their wings in or around his house will need the help of a specialist. If exterminators are called in time, they can stop termite attacks before it seriously damages the proper-

Shriners Plan Big Parade and Drill at Joliet

Joliet has been selected as the site for the 1957 Medinah Shrine Club Day to be observed on June 22.

As part of the observance, there is to be a gigantic and colorful two-mile parade during the afternoon. In the evening, a two hours and thirty minute spectacular pageant will be presented at the Memorial stadium on the outskirts of Joliet. There will be no charge for the exciting, thrill packed program.

The parade, scheduled to last at least ninety minutes, is set for 2:30 p.m. It will include marching units, precise drill teams, comical clowns, animals such as the famous Medinah Temple black horse troop. There are to be many unusual floats plus chanters, bands and many other interesting items including the Skokie Indians, the 40 Thieves of Bagdad and scores of others.

The evening performance at the stadium is set for 7:30 p.m.

E. B. Workman, Will county probate clerk, the general publicity chairman, said that more than 25,000 Shrines and their families and friends are expected in Joliet for the day of entertainment and frivolity.

Joliet Shrine club committees already are busy working out parking and traffic problems with local police authorities and in arranging the myriad of other details requiring attention in order to make such a display a success.

PRESENTS CORNERSTONE FOR FRANKFORT CHURCH—The senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Frankfort Methodist church presented the cornerstone for the new church edifice as the climax to a Sunday school centennial pageant Sunday, May 12.

LeVerne Mark, MYF president, (second from right) presented the stone "in honor of the mothers of our church family". The young people chose to pay respect to their mothers by presenting the cornerstone as a lasting token of love in preference to giving flowers on Mother's Day.

Arthur C. Mark, (right) father of the MYF president and trustee chairman, responded on behalf of the board of trustees. Ralph Dralle (second from left) expressed appreciation on behalf of the building committee and noted the appropriateness of the gift.

The cornerstone will be laid in a special service at the new church site June 9, at 2:00 p.m. This service will climax three days of centennial celebration marking one hundred years of organized Methodism in Frankfort. The Rev. Ben F. Day, pastor, is shown at the extreme left in the picture.

Tinley Little League Seeks Funds

Team Members to Embark on Decal Sales Campaign Saturday

The Tinley Park Little League baseball team will go to bat Saturday morning, May 25, on their own behalf.

The boys will canvass homes selling booster decals to be placed on car windshields, announcing the buyer is a booster of the Tinley Park baseball program, which has been enlarged this year so that more boys will be able to play ball on organized teams.

It will be necessary to buy uniforms and equipment for four more teams.

53 Players

There are 53 eight-year olds alone playing on teams this year and a total of 248 boys will be playing in the league; 75 on major league teams; 60 on minor league, and 60 boys on Pony League teams.

More coaches and managers are needed for the Pony league teams. Men interested in helping these teams, may call league president, Reinie Meyer, at KE 2-4232 or Jack Casey, KE 2-4274.

Volunteers are presently constructing dugouts on the Little League diamond of concrete and frame. It is planned to install wiring to protect their small brothers and sisters while watching the games.

An Active Sports Town

Tinley Park has always been an active sports town and the success of their program is evidenced by the number of boys who make up the bulk of regulars on Bremen High school athletic teams.

The unsung heroes behind the plate are volunteers like Selby Hirsch, Reinie Meyer, Jack Casey, Moose Nasebandt and others who have given untiringly of their efforts through the years.

Do not let the boys strike out. Be a booster, buy a decal to give visual evidence of supporting a baseball program in Tinley Park.

Oak Forest Patients To See Sox Play Kansas City May 28

Oak Forest Institution patients are getting ready for their second ball game of the year at Comiskey park, May 28, when the White Sox will be hosts to the Kansas City A's.

This season for the third year, White Sox park has extended the courtesies of the field to patients on five dates: May 3 and 28, June 5 and 17, and Aug. 7.

Accompanied by a member of the Oak Forest Institution Recreation staff, 40 patients made the trip to the south side field May 3, via chartered bus.

The patients reportedly thoroughly enjoyed the bus ride, noting the changes in neighborhoods they passed through and their previous connections with the areas.

While the majority of baseball minded patients are older men a few rabid women ball fans make the trip and enjoy the hot dogs and pop at the ball park.

Lincoln-Way Nine Loses Out In Tourneys

By FRED KIESLAR

The Lincoln-Way varsity baseball team is out of the running in both conference and state competition.

A 3-0 defeat at the hands of Bremen put the Knights out of the double-elimination tournament substituted by the Southwest Suburban conference for its regular schedule which had been rained out.

The Knights had lost a previous tourney start so they bowed out of the scene.

Then in the district tournament, which was a part of the state competition, L-W lost to Lemont, 8 to 7 in 15 innings.

This game against the Lemont Indians was a hard fought contest from the beginning, Dave Zechlin, who was on the mound for the Knights and two Lemont hurlers, pitched excellent ball. The teams were tied at 6-all at the end of the sixth inning and remained that way until the top of the 15th.

In that frame Ron Studnicki, of Lincoln-Way rapped out a two-bagger, stole third and then came on home on a single by Jerry Haehlein to put Lincoln-Way ahead, 7-6. But the Knights advantage didn't last. In the bottom half of the 15th the Indians pushed over two runs to win 8 to 7.

In the tilt against the Braves the Knights were a bit loose. They gave Bremen three runs on four errors and that was enough. These bobbles, coupled with the fact that the Knights had a miserable day at the plate, put Lincoln-Way out of the running.

The Bremens had some excellent pitching, limiting the Knights to two singles, one by Haehlein in the third and the other by Studnicki in the sixth.

Objects to Odors At Mushroom Plant

Claiming that objectionable odors and other unhealthy conditions at the American Mushroom Company in Tinley Park, is lowering surrounding property values, the village board has been petitioned to investigate it.

The petition was signed by James Robertson, a homeowner in the vicinity of the plant. He claims that gaseous odors and the unsightly condition of the premises is unhealthy.

The matter has been turned over to health officer, Dr. J. L. Gonzalez, who will make an inspection and report his findings to the village board.

Tells of Need For Boy Scout Camp Facilities

With a growth in membership from 7,000 to 10,000 boys in three years in Pokagon Trails council of Boy Scouts of America, there is urgent need to expand camping facilities, according to council president Abe Davis of Homewood.

As early as February, he said reservations were filled for the council's only summer camp, Camp Betz near Berrien Springs, Mich., which has a season capacity of 1,000 boys. Since then, Boy Scout troops and individual boys have been registered on a waiting list, their attendance depending upon cancellations.

Reservations are filled six months in advance for the council's weekend sites at Camps Eggers, Hawes, Nissaki and Roe.

Mr. Davis said Pokagon Trails council's 10,000 boys include 6,000 Cubs, 3,000 Boy Scouts and 1,000 Explorers. The Boy Scouts and Explorers are in 168 units competing for the limited camping facilities.

Approximately 3,000 adult leaders serve the council's membership. Of these, 600 are den mothers for Cubs and 2,400 are men Scouters for Cubs, Boy Scouts and Explorers.

Pokagon Trails council, with Ray Donovan as chief Scout executive at headquarters in Hammond, serves three districts of 38 communities in Illinois and Indiana.

Peace Pipe district—Whiting, Robertsdale, Hammond, Calumet City, and Burnham.

Ashkum district—Olympia Fields, Chicago Heights, Park Forest, Steger, Crete, Richton Park, Matteson, Glenwood, Monee, Beecher, Lowell, Dyer, Schererville, Munster, Griffith, Lansing and Highland.

Potawattomi district—Flossmoor, Homewood, South Holland, Hazel Crest, Thornton, Harvey, Dolton, Riverdale, Tinley Park, Oak Forest, Orland Park, Markham, Posen, Midlothian, Crestwood and Bremen Heights.

May 27 Deadline For Dairy Princess Contest in Will Co.

A contest is now underway in Will county to pick a Dairy Princess, in conjunction with June Dairy Month. The County winners will compete with other County winners on August 11, 1957 for the title of Illinois Dairy Princess.

The State competition will be held at Springfield during the State Fair, so winners will then compete for the title of National Dairy Princess.

To be eligible the girl must be at least 16 years of age by October 1, 1957, and not over 25 years of age as of October 1, 1957. She must be a high school graduate and not be, nor have been, married. The winner must be available for personal appearances during the year, commencing October, 1957, and ending October, 1958, if she is selected as the American Dairy Princess.

Candidates may be entered by any Chamber of Commerce, Civic club, Farm Organization, Home Bureau, Home Economics club, or Illinois Dairy. The Will County deadline for entry is May 27, 1957.

Application blanks are available from all Will county high school superintendents and the American Dairy Association Office and Farm Advisor's office.

Find Seat Belts Are Life Savers

Representatives of the Cornell University Committee on Transportation Safety Research have told a Congressional committee investigating traffic accidents that a university study of automobile accidents has proved "beyond all reasonable doubt" that automobile seat safety belts save lives and reduce the frequency—and the severity—of injuries to drivers and passengers involved in accidents.

John O. Moore, director of the University's automotive crash injury research division, said that research on the design and installation of auto seat belts has been carried on for more than 10 years in a series of projects at the Cornell aeronautical laboratory, under the direction of Edward R. Dye, head of the lab's safety design research department.

Mr. Moore said that for the past two years the ACIR group has checked the effectiveness of seat belts by investigation of actual traffic accidents.

"From more than 5,000 case histories of injury-producing accidents," Mr. Moore said, "we have reached conclusions which should remove all doubt of the effectiveness of safety belts. In minimizing injuries in automobile accidents. In actual use, properly designed and installed seat belts will increase a car occupant's chances of escaping injury in an accident by nearly 60 per cent."

One of the obvious reasons for the success of safety belts, Mr. Moore said, is the protection they afford by keeping passengers inside a car in accidents in which car doors fly open.

Tinley Nuns Form Auxiliary

The Benedictine Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows at Tinley Park announce the formation of a Benedictine auxiliary uniting their many friends in the expansion projects of the community's fields of educational and cultural endeavors.

An election was held on April 28.

Installation of officers will be held on the Benedictine Convent Campus Sunday, May 26 at 2:30 pm. This will mark the auxiliary's first meeting and social get together. Refreshments will be served.

The Benedictine Convent of Our Lady of Sorrows was founded July 1, 1951. The sisters resided in Chicago until the headquarters were transferred to Tinley Park on July 1, 1954. Mother M. Teresita Shrobs, O.S.B. was elected its first major Mother Superior.

Most recent addition to the campus of Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, is an electrical engineering and physics research building for Armour Research Foundation.

"LA STRADA" Wins Several Awards

opening May 24 at the Nortown theater, has just received three of the high-ranking French Prix Victoire awards, for best direction, best foreign film and best foreign actress of the year 1955. Awarded by Cinemonde and Le Film Francais, respectively the leading popular film and film trade magazines of France, the Prix Victoire statuettes are the most important accolades that can be received by a motion picture in that country. Selections are made by a combination of public ballot and a panel of creative artists in the film industry.

Federico Fellini, rapidly becoming one of world's most important film personalities, can be said to have made a clean sweep of the awards, since as author-director of 'LA STRADA' he received both the 'best picture' and 'best director' statuettes, and it was his wife, Giulietta Masina who took the 'best foreign actress' award.

'LA STRADA' was also Grand Prize-winning film of the Venice International Film Festival and swept all 'Nastro D'Argento' (Silver Ribbon) awards in Italy. In San Francisco 'LA STRADA' received the Golden Gate award. A Ponti-DeLaurentis production it is a Trans-Lux release, starring Anthony Quinn and Richard Basehart as well as Giulietta Masina.

A recent scientific development is a supersensitive indicator which can detect two parts per million of oxygen in hydrogen or inert gases despite contaminating carbon monoxide.

Commandery Drill Team Is Selling Theater Tickets

The newly organized Joliet Commandery drill team, known as "The Maltamen" are now in the midst of a campaign to raise money for uniforms.

The device employed for this particular purpose is a painless one. The drill team has made arrangements with the Hilltop theatre, Maple road, to sell tickets for the picture, "The Spirit of St. Louis," to be shown there next Monday and Tuesday, May 27-28.

The tickets sell at the regular price but the drill team receives approximately two-thirds of the price of those tickets sold in advance. The money so realized will be added to the uniform fund.

"The Maltamen" will appear in an exhibition conducted at the state convocation of Knights Templar at Springfield in September. Howard L. Mead is president and Forrest L. McAllister is drill captain.

Agronomy Day for 1957 at the University of Illinois will be June 27.

SELL $180,000—

Blauner Const., Chicago, $187,600.

James Merrill, president of Hansen & Petersen, said that approximately six months would be required to complete the entire job. Hansen & Petersen Construction Co., which is highly rated, is one of the old contracting firms in Joliet and has had wide experience in school construction. Currently it has another job in this area, the new Frankfort Methodist church.

The four classrooms to be added will join the present building at the east end and run north from the art department which extends in that direction about 40 feet. The classroom extension will add another 60 plus feet so this wing to the north will be approximately 100 feet in length.

Under the overall plans of the architects, Childs and Smith, Chicago, there will be no further extension to the north from this section of the building. When other classrooms are needed they will be built to the west to form an eventual junction with the auditorium. This will leave a courtyard that can be quite decorative, it was pointed out.

When Lincoln-Way high was built the board lacked sufficient funds to complete the auditorium. The outer walls were built and the stage floor poured but the remainder of the work was left for some future date. The board feels that the job can be completed now.

The school has considerable use as a civic center for the district and lack of an auditorium has been felt for some time.

Under the present plans the interior walls, accoustical treatment, floor and stage will be completed, including the installation of electrical and heating units. Movie projection facilities together with spotlights and stagelights require special wiring and equipment and it is not cheap.

The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 635. The cost of seats and stage curtains are separate items that will be purchased later.

Money from the bond sale remaining after construction costs are paid will be used to pay the architects and provide furnishings.

Advice from Uncle Sam-Keep Tax Records

A reminder to federal income taxpayers to retain their copies of returns filed in the recently closed tax filing period was issued today by District Director H. Alan Long of the Chicago office of the Internal Revenue Service. Records of income and expense used in preparation of the return also should be kept.

"Tax records must be retained for the least three years from the deadline date, April 15," Mr. Long said. "There is always the possibility that a taxpayer may be called upon to furnish proof of his income and deductions. Keepink copies of returns and records will help both him and the Revenue Service in such cases."

"Beyond this requirement, taxpayers should find that retention of their copies of returns will help them in filing next year, especially if there is no major change in their financial status. In addition, the Revenue Service urges that all records of 1957 expenditures—cancelled checks, receipts, notations of contributions, state and local taxes, interest payments and other deductible items—be retained for reference in computing 1957 Federal returns."

Mr. Long pointed out that district and local offices of the Revenue Service are glad to provide information thruout the year, preferably by telephone.

The first Ph.D. degree granted in the U. S. was presented by Yale in 1861.

Civic, Labor Groups Urge 'Yes' Vote on Two Sanatorium Ballots

Civic and labor organizations have joined the campaign urging voters to approve the two special ballots in the June 3 judicial election which would give the Sunny Hill sanatorium the authority to continue operation. Sanatorium officials say approval of both ballots will not create a new tax or mean a tax increase.

The Illinois supreme court has ruled that the 1954 ballot, approved by the voters by a five and a half majority, was in error. The error occurred even after careful preparation of the ballot by Attorney Amos Watts, Chapman and Cutler's expert on the subject.

Locally, the ballot was challenged by attorneys representing some large corporations. Altho the 1954 ballot error was not brought up in litigation, a similar case in Bureau county resulted in the supreme court ruling.

The decision to re-vote the issue came as an aftermath of a conference between State's Attorney Frank H. Masters, Jr., Meade Baltz, chairman of the Will County Board of Supervisors, and Michael A. Faletti, superintendent of the sanatorium.

Hire Special Attorney

Robert Scott, attorney for the DuPage sanatorium board, who has had considerable experience in such matters, has been retained to prepare the ballots. He is being assisted by Clifford Blunk, attorney for the Illinois Tuberculosis Association.

One ballot will be for the support of the sanatorium. The second ballot will give County Clerk Joseph H. Hartley the authority to extend the levy for its support, which has been standard procedure for years.

Dr. Arthur A. Fahrner, chairman of the Sunny Hill Sanatorium board of trustees, said one of the ballots will carry the option 'for' and 'against.' The other will be a 'yes' and 'no' proposition.

The civic and labor organizations are carrying on a campaign to urge voters to place a cross after 'for' and 'yes' on the two ballots since there is no additional tax imposed.

Sanatorium officials feel that if voters are assured that no tax increase is involved, the ballots will carry, enabling the sanatorium to continue operation.

Not a New Tax

This is to inform the tax-weary public that these sanatorium ballots are not to be confused with the many recent bond issues. The approval of both ballots will not create a new tax or mean a tax increase.

The 34-year-old sanatorium has treated some 4,000 patients since it was founded. It now accommodates sixty patients.

In addition, some 4,000 persons with tuberculosis symptoms are annually examined in the sanatorium clinic.

Formerly known as the Will county tuberculosis sanatorium, the name was changed to Sunny Hill sanatorium in recent years by action of the Will county board of supervisors. The name was changed to remove any stigma to the institution as a charitable haven for persons afflicted with tuberculosis.

Asks Churches, General Public to Back Soil Conservation Program

Soil Stewardship week which has become an annual national event among churches of all faiths, will be observed this year May 26 thru June 2. So announces the Association of Illinois Soil Conservation Districts, the land use organization which is sponsoring the event in Illinois this year. Gov. Stratton has designated the week for this special observance, and on May 1 issued a public proclamation requesting all citizens of the state to join in making the observance of the period successful.

William H. Stelter, Tinley Park, chairman of South Cook county soil conservation district and of Council 3, is asking all pastors in the area to make mention of the subject this Sunday.

The activities of the week aim to impress upon the people—not the farm people alone, but all people—their grave responsibility in conserving this great, now abundant resource, the soil. Says Nolen Fuqua, president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, "If we fail in our stewardship, the time may not be too far distant when our blessed abundance which has been our strength may give way to scarcity. Then there may come years when good crops will not be enough to meet our needs. Can a nation be neglectful of its stewardship of the land and still be a religious nation?"

In a recent statement, Paul L. Trovillion, of Brownfield, vice-president of the state association of soil conservation districts said, "There is an unmistakable moral and religious aspect to soil conservation. There is a positive relationship between the welfare of people and their management of the land. Christian stewardship recognizes that 'The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof,' and that the true Christian accepts His gifts in trust."

Ministers and conservation district directors thruout the state and nation will be cooperating in this observance with tours, demonstrations and other programs giving emphasis to the importance of stewardship of the land.

Radioactive gold in solution is being used in the treatment of cancer.

Each week during this program will be designated as All-State Week for one of 20 midwestern and southern states. These states comprise the area from which most of the young men come to undergo training at Great Lakes.

Great Lakes Naval Training Center is the largest naval training installation in the world. During its 46-year existence, two million men and women have been trained for naval service. About one third of all navy personnel during World War II were trained at this station.

Guided Tours

Many of these people have shown a continued interest in the navy, even after returning to civilian life. The homecoming program was planned to give them the opportunity to reacquaint themselves with the navy and to see the great improvements in methods and equipment brought into service in the modern nuclear navy.

Guided tours of the center, displays, exhibits and movies have been arranged to give an excellent knowledge of the power and efficiency of the navy today. One of the most interesting of all exhibits will depict the development and progress in ships from coal to atom power, the history of naval aviation from its beginning to the foreseeable future, and the life of men at sea today.

Plan Demonstrations

Other special attractions include demonstrations by skilled Navy technicians. Shipboard fire-fighting, deep sea diving, underwater demolition, air demonstrations featuring the Blue Angels and helicopter and amphibious demonstrations head the list.

Special companies are being formed from each of the 20 states involved. Graduation ceremonies will be held on the Saturday morning of the week in which their particular state is saluted, a fitting climax to the All-State Week.

Old sailors, new sailors and non-sailors are equally invited to visit the Great Lakes Naval Training Center during this program to become familiar with the Navy and its way of life.

Mason Hopes 'Upper House' Will Not 'Up' Cuts Made in Record Budget

BY Cong. N. M. MASON

The House has passed seven regular appropriation bills that called for $19 billion, namely: (1) Treasury-Post Office, (2) Independent Offices, (3) Interior, (4) Labor and Health, Education, and Welfare, (5) Commerce, (6) State and Justice, and (7) Agriculture.

The House has cut the appropriations requested by $1.5 billion—a reduction of about 8 per cent. This is an excellent record so far by the House.

The senate is known on Capitol Hill as the "Upper House" because it has the record of upping every appropriation bill the house has reduced, usually replacing half or more of the cut the house makes. If the senate can be persuaded to hold the economy line, there will be a nice tax cut in the offing for the American taxpayer.

When a well-run business finds itself with a balance on hand at the end of the year, after operating expenses plus the normal reserves, it declares a dividend to its stockholders. When the government gets into the same position, it can and should declare a dividend in the form of lower taxes.

CHANGES DURING 20 YEARS

In 1938 the total federal debt was $33.7 billion, the total federal tax was $7 billion, and the total federal expenditures were $6.1 billion.

In 1958 the total Federal debt will be $274 billion, the total federal tax take (anticipated) will be $74 billion, and the total federal expenditures requested is $72 billion.

Budget Comparisons 1938
	Billions
Interest	$0.86
National Defense	1.00
Veterans Benefits	.57
Foreign Aid	.00
Civilian Pay Roll	1.50
Miscellaneous (Subsidies, etc.)	2.20
TOTAL	$6.13

1958
	Billions
Interest	$ 7.4
National Defense	38.0
Veterans Benefits	5.0
Foreign Aid	4.5
Civilian Pay Roll	11.7
Miscellaneous (Subsidies, etc.)	5.2
TOTAL	$71.8

The writer has been a member of congress during the 20 years the above financial changes have taken place. He has watched the federal debt skyrocket from $34 billion to $274 billion; the federal tax take skyrocket from $7 billion to $74 billion; and the Federal expenditures skyrocket from $6 billion to $72 billion—and he is not proud of that record. But there it is, the result of New Deal - Modern Republicanism spending—spending the other fellow's hard-earned dollars.

EXCISE TAX TECHNICAL CHANGES

After more than a year of work by a subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee—your Congressman acting as ranking member of the Subcommittee—H. R. 7125, a 400-page technical tax bill was approved by the 25-member ways and means committee and ordered to the floor to the house for action.

H. R. 7125 covers hundreds of technical changes in our federal excise tax laws, changes designed to remove many of the inequities presently in the law, to simplify many of the provisions of the law, and to make more efficient the administration of the law.

No changes were made in excise tax rates. Prospective changes in rates will be considered by the subcommittee later on in the year.

In 1954 the entire federal tax code except the excise tax section was revised and modernized. The revision of the excise tax section competes the work of federal tax revision.

Federal TAX REDUCTION should be the next job of the ways and means committee.

Showers of Letters

The movement in Congress to cut the record peacetime $71.8 billion budget is strengthening.

And if taxpayers of the country continue to shower Congress with letters demanding economy, there appears to be a good chance for substantial savings.

The economy movement has acquired powerful leadership in the Senate—a leadership which unquestionably will make itself felt.

Two Demands

Republican Leader William Knowland called for a $2-billion slash in the budget, and Senator Styles Bridges, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, made a similar demand.

Declining to accept characterizations of their action as a revolt against the White House, Knowland and Bridges point to President Eisenhower's general invitation to save taxpayers' money.

Meanwhile, Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia—after a close study of the budget with experts of his Committee on Non-essential Expenditures—called for a cut of at least $5 billion. He previously had urged a cut of $5 to $8 billion.

Uranium, the raw material of atomic energy, is found in minute quantities in the human body.

LABOR LEADERS

Walter Reuther says: "When you find a crooked labor leader who took a bribe from a crooked employer, put them both in jail for about fifteen years and give them plenty of time to talk it over among themselves." Secretary of Labor Mitchell says: "There are two types of labor hoodlums—the corrupted apostle of labor's cause and the committed criminal who, after a life of crime, attaches himself to the labor movement. The second invariably depends upon the first to gain access to the movement."

Read Luke 11:5-12.
Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness.

(Matthew 6:33)
A government office holder sought power, and found himself enmeshed in fraud and thievery. Another man with health, education, wealth, died young. Fortune spent, he swept barroom floors for the price of the liquor he craved. A woman used questionable methods to gain a fine estate, only to die and leave it for others to enjoy.

When shall we have faith to believe Christ's promise that all in life will be provided when we truly seek to do His will? When man plans without God, he builds on shifting sand. Too often a lifetime of labor leaves one broken in defeat only because the goal was selfish and that of a man's own designing. We do not need better schemes, not more prestige. Instead, the world needs Christ.

Christ will come into the heart of man when invited. Perhaps He waits—sorrowfully—for us to admit Him, to help Him in a greater way.

PRAYER
We thank Thee, heavenly Father, for the choice Thou hast given us—to seek first Thy kingdom rather than things that lure to lesser goals. Lest we fail Thee, and in falling short, betray our brother, may we have courage and the will to do Thy bidding. In Thy name, we pray. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The spiritual basis of true grace and beauty will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" include the following from Psalms (90:16,17): "Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it."

From (Sciences and Health with Key to the Scriptures) by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (247:19-24): "Comeliness and grace are independent of matter. Being possesses its qualities before they are perceived humanly. Beauty is a thing of life, which dwells forever in the eternal Mind and reflects the charms of His goodness in expression, form, outline, and color."

Gas Company Stockholders to Meet June 11

Proxy material has been mailed out by Northern Illinois Gas Co., to 120,000 stockholders announcing that the utility's annual meeting will be held in the Benjamin Franklin junior high school in Aurora (14 Blackhawk street) on Tuesday, June 11 starting at 10:30 a.m.

Stockholders will be asked to re-elect the present board of nine directors and to increase the company's authorized $100 preferred stock to 300,000 shares. The formal meeting will be followed by a short program of interest to stockholders and a buffet luncheon.

Company president, Marvin Chandler pointed out that the company expects to spend about $75 million on construction work in the four years 1957-60 (exclusive of any possible outlays for major supply or storage facilities in the latter two years) and that it is estimated that about $40 million of new capital will be needed to finance this program. The company's strong capital structure makes it unlikely that there will be a need to sell common stock in the next few years.

"Altho we have sufficient authority to sell mortgage bonds and debentures," Chandler said, "the presently authorized amount of preferred stock will place us in a position of maximum flexibility to finance, from time to time in the future, on the best terms possible under fluctuating market conditions."

He emphasized Northern Illinois Gas had no present plans to sell any preferred stock.

U. S. Savings Bonds Sales Meet Quota

Cook County sales of Series E and H United States savings bonds in the month of April totaled $17,141,977. The sales total for these bonds in Will county was $489,775.

Sales of both Series E and H in the state for the month totaled $34,874,461, according to word received from T. Merle Paul, State Director of the Savings Bonds Division for Illinois.

33.1% of the annual quota for the state has been reached in the first four months. The 1957 quota is $444,000,000. During April, sales in Illinois amounted to 9.4% of national sales which were $371,866,000.

In 1956 the Class 1 railroads spent almost $1,884,000,000 on fuel, materials and supplies, excluding equipment—15.1 percent more than in the preceding year.

A New York Times article states that the pawnbroking business has declined 25% in the past 10 years in that city. Reasons given include prosperity, the high level of employment, installment selling, and increased small loan activity by banks and credit unions.

Mind is Master Of Our Actions, Says Writer

By MARTIN WORK,
Director of the National Council of Catholic Men
(Paulist Feature Service)

Last night a gun was shoved into the ribs of an old man on his way home from work. He was robbed, beaten, and kicked into the gutter. Last night a car was stolen, a bank robbed, a teen-age baby sitter attacked. Yesterday a dope peddler was picked up doing business outside a high school. It may have happened in New York or Washington; it may have happened in your town.

To the sensitive person the 45 per cent rise in juvenile delinquency in the last five years, the staggering increase in violent crimes, in the use of narcotics, in drunkenness, in broken homes, in graft and corruption in public affairs is terrifying.

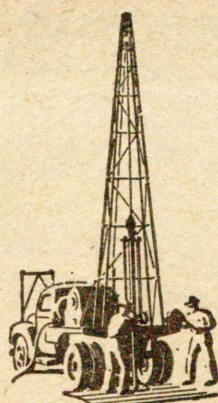

The question in many minds is whether or not a modern paganism is eating at the heart of American morality which was created on, and finds its strength in, the basic fundamental beliefs of Christianity. Finding the answer to this problem is the task of society and especially America's fathers.

That Father of Crime

The all-important factor in the problem is the tremendous influence of the mass media of communications. The motion pictures, the radio and television, the newspapers, beat a never-ending tattoo on the windows of our minds—and our minds can become shaped into a distorted gargoyle or a beautifully sculptured tribute to ourselves and our Creator.

The mind is the master of our actions—saints are saints first in the mind—and then in life. Murder is first committed in thought—and then the shot is fired or the knife driven home.

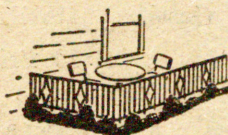

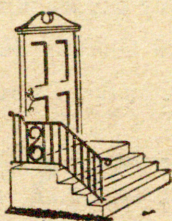

The most dramatic development to flow out of the Hendrickson subcommittee on juvenile delinquency was the testimony showing the relationship between juvenile crime and these mass media of communications. Witness after witness proved that you cannot fill young people's minds with vivid descriptions of every crime and brutality without having repercussions.

The solution will not be easy. America's fathers will have to watch carefully over the influence these media have on their children. We will have to prevent harmful influences from coming into our homes and check the motion pictures our children see before they see them.

Above all, we must help to make the producers of these media see the distinction between liberty and license. No one is free to sell poison to our children; and no one should be free to poison their minds. Individually and collectively we can do much to solve this problem. May God give us the courage and wisdom to do so.

Mulching the soil around vegetables in your garden helps conserve moisture, prevents erosion, and helps control weeds. The mulch should be put on after the plant is well established and cultivated once or twice. Mulching materials include leaves, grass cuttings, peat moss, sawdust, ground corn cobs, aluminum foil, paper and polyethylene plastic.

The oat variety trial is up and can be inspected. It is located on the Owen Maue farm, Orland township. The plot is at the corner of 104th ave., and 183rd street.

Several other demonstrations are in the planning stage. A weed control demonstration and a soybean variety trial will be announced soon.

The special milk program which has made more milk available to school children at reduced prices, has been extended to summer camps and recreation centers.

Newly eligible groups include boys and girls clubs, scout camps child guidance centers, youth groups and summer camps sponsored by church and civic organizations.

Applications should be sent through the County Superintendent of Schools.

Floyd Adair, Chicago Heights, president of the 4H Fair Association has the board and other committees planning for the fair to be held near Chicago Heights August 16, 17 and 18.

The fair is held for the benefit of all 4H members, and has received active county wide support.

The board invites and appreciates participation by merchants and businessmen. Inquiries may be sent to Mr. Adair, South Street and 66th Court, Tinley Park.

"A SAILOR'S LIFE FOR ME, TRA LA"—Miss Nickie Wheaton of Muskegon, Mich., has been selected Miss Navy Recruiting for the intensive information and recruiting program being sponsored by the naval air station, Glenview, Ill., for the naval air reserve, "Week-end Warrior". Miss Wheaton is shown in a brief "navy" uniform at the information center on the air station.

Men and officers of the various 28 naval air reserve squadrons attached to the station are in accord that Miss Navy Recruiting will make the reserve program even more attractive.

According to Lt. Comdr. Kenneth F. Sanford, USNR, information and recruiting officer at the station, the popularity of the reserve program has been enhanced by the availability of many advantages both to veterans and non-veterans. (Navy Photo)

Grade 'A' Milk Shippers to Get Better Price

Dairy farmers who are shipping Grade "A" milk to the Chicago Market Federal Order 41 will receive 5c a hundred lbs. more for their April base milk than for base milk they shipped in March.

The base price of $3.66 in the 70-mile zone, announced by the milk market association, also includes an 11c premium according to Harry L. Edwards, director of sales for PMA.

Edwards said the 11 cent premium payment resulted from successful negotiations by PMA to help offset scheduled drop on farm milk prices this spring. It reflected the first complete month of operation of a "super-pool" set up by the association with Chicago milk companies to collect and distribute the additional money of farmers on their base milk thru June 30. The announced price will be paid for base milk testing 3.5% butterfat and shipped to a milk plant within a 55 to 75 mile radius of Chicago. For all milk delivered over his base, a dairy farmer will receive $31.5 a 100-lbs. This milk is called excess milk.

GROSS PRICES

This system of to prices for milk will continue thru June 30 in the Chicago Market. It applies each spring for the period, March thru June, and is a marketing device intended to level out the supply of milk. It rewards dairy farmers who produce evenly from month to month and penalizes those who do not.

BUTTERFAT DECIDES

Prices quoted do not reflect any additional premiums which dairy farmers may receive because of their nearness to Chicago, for shipping milk in bulk instead of in cans, or any allowances on hauling fees that farmers pay to have the milk taken to a milk plant.

Farmer's final gross prices will vary according to the butterfat test of his milk. If the test of the milk he delivered in April was above 3.5%, he will receive a few cents additional per hundred lbs. of milk delivered. If the test was below 3.5% he will receive less.

Edwards said the small gross increase realized by dairy farmers on the milk they shipped in April does not reflect any increased earnings. Rising production and marketing expenses continue to eat up the increase a dairy farmer may realize, he added.

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The purchasing power of the dollar will soon get another shove downward. The wage-price spiral will bring about an increase of about eight dollars per ton of steel on about July first. On that date the steel workers will get about 20 cents per hour increase under the labor contract signed last year.

Due to the tremendous industrial and population growth of the country, the demand for steel products has mounted at a rapid rate. The erection of added steel capacity requires considerable time and plans for this added capacity must be made long in advance of actual construction.

A steel company to secure the large sums necessary for this construction, must have earnings which attract the investor or acquire the funds thru its own earnings. Even tho the leaders of the large labor unions point the finger of accusation against earnings of the steel companies, it is more than merely doubtful that union investment funds would find their way into any but the better earning firms.

Hourly employment costs in the steel industry for the past decade have been increasing at the annual rate of 8 per cent. The increase in per-man-hour productivity has been rising at the rate of about 3 per cent per year. It is obvious that the differential must be passed on in the form of increased prices for the end products. The alternative is that the company shall deduct this differential from earnings and thereby ruin its credit standing. Regardless of statements for public consumption no informed labor leader would care to see the firms supporting his union, unable to keep abreast of modernization and competitive position. This would insure lack of wage stability.

Unfortunately many believe that an eight dollar per ton increase in steel prices, will reflect itself in the increase in the cost of steel products on a per pound basis. It is not that simple.

Most manufacturers of steel products such as the automobile manufacturers, buy component parts for the end product, from outside manufacturers and often such items must be processed thru several manufacturers before being delivered for final use. Each manufacturer must earn a net profit on his activity and in this process must also pay an income tax on his corporate activity of about fifty per cent of earnings. This alone has the effect of a substantial percentage increase over the steel mill percentage increase in the raw steel. It is sometimes difficult for people without accounting knowledge to understand this major point.

The disparity between increased wages and increased production of the worker, has been called "wage inflation", but under any name, it has been one of the basic causes in gradual and constant whittling away of electric milkers. They also went to the Harold Mohney farm to see the flock of sheep and lambs, and a pony colt. The classes and their teachers were on a field trip.

There will be a dog clinic at Bump's service station, five miles east of Lockport on Rte. 7 or 159th St., Thursday evening June 6 at 7 o'clock. Dr. Cecil Ingmire, Joliet veterinarian will be in charge. The cost of inoculation will be $2.50.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Storm of Maple road are patients in Silver Cross hospital following an auto collision at the intersection of Rts. 45 and 6 last Wednesday evening. The other car was driven by a Chicago youth who claims he was struck from the rear by a third vehicle, which statement has not yet been verified. All three victims were removed to an Oak Park hospital and the following day Mr. and Mrs. Storm were brought to Silver Cross hospital where she was found to have a broken collar bone, one or more cracked ribs and a slight concussion.

The Lincoln Log

BIOLOGY CLUB

Saturday, May 11, the Lincoln-Way Biology club and guests, chaperoned by George Abraham and Neil Hardy, took a field trip to Starved Rock and Mat-ahessent state parks for the purpose of nature studies of Illinois botany and animal life.

An early rise of 5 a.m. was justified when all agreed, upon their return, that a worthwhile, enjoyable time was had by all.

Field studies were made of the simplest plant life existing on the forest floor, trees, and rocks. Besides identifying these Thallophytes and Bryophytes by certain characteristics, their purpose and position within the plant kingdom was discussed.

The wooded area was particularly beautiful with the many buds and blooms of trees and flowers alike, introducing a new season's growth. Besides the enjoyment and identification of all this, such points as their position within the plant kingdom, purpose and special adaptations were noted.

All bright colored clothing was left behind so that with the aid of binoculars, a study of the birds could be made. It was trying at times just keeping the birds in range long enough to be identified. With birds being willing to cooperate, a detailed observation was undertaken. Most agree that the flicker we observed didn't know it was supposed to be a member of the woodpecker family as it was out chasing worms.

Not many animals were observed first hand, but their presence was noted by tracks, feces, and the browsing of vegetation. One point proven was that most of us hurry through woods without really understanding the plant life being trodden underfoot or trying to understand the animal life available.

A picnic dinner was served by the girls of the club.

CHILD CARE EXPERIENCE

May 6-10 saw the Homemaking Department of Lincoln-Way High school converted into a

"nursery" as forty-two preschool children, ages 2 thru 5, participated in nursery group.

All classes in Homemaking under the guidance of Miss Ann Walker and Mrs. Mildred Foster, homemaking teachers, were instructed in the care and understanding of small children.

During the week, John Dallavaux, author of the books "Your Child and Mine" and "What Are You Worth?" talked to the student body and later came to view the nursery group.

LINCOLN ESTATES

May 13 was the meeting date for the Ann Rutledge school PTA in Lincoln Estates with Mrs. Donald Ball, president, presiding.

Mrs. Walter Niedringhaus gave a report on the PTA convention she and Mrs. Ball attended in Chicago.

An announcement was made of the 8th grade banquet sponsored by the PTA to be held Saturday, May 25 at the Ann Rutledge school. Members of the PTA who do not have children in the 8th grade are asked to contact the banquet committee to volunteer their help.

The panel discussion "Recap of Year's Accomplishments" was moderated by Floyd Martin. Each chairman reported on the accomplishments during the past school year. After the reports there were general discussions on how the committees may be improved in the future.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. E. Edstrom, Mrs. J. F. Machtemes, Mrs. J. G. Milota and Mrs. J. H. Tyler.

The 4th, 5th and 6th grade students went on their field trip Friday, May 10. They saw "Seven Wonders of the World" in cinerama. After lunch at the Forum there was a short tour of Field's then on to the Prudential Building's observation tower. Accompanying the children were Mrs. William Davidson, their teacher. She was assisted by Mr. Davidson, Mrs. P. J. Kommas, Mrs. D. L. Nicholson, Mrs. W. L. Niedringhaus, Mrs. Machtemes, Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. R. J. Wheeler and Mrs. R. P. Urbano. Miss Jeanne Boleman's pupils, 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades, spent Wednesday, May 15 at Brookfield zoo. They were accompanied and assisted by Mrs. D. A. Ball, Mrs. G. C. Chapman, Mrs. S. L. Kubeck, Mrs. H. F. Rauston and Mrs. D. J. Scates.

Friday, May 17th, the proceeds from the magazine sales were put to use. The 7th and 8th grade students of Mr. Lloyd Alton went to Springfield in a chartered bus. Members of the school board, John Van Donk, George Kaehler, and Charles Jones and the faculty, Miss Jeanne Boleman, Mrs. William Davidson and Lloyd Alton accompanied the students on the trip.

Fuel Injection To be Explained

The mystery which has veiled fuel injection, the revolutionary automobile engineering development of the 20th century will be ended for members of the automotive trade on May 24.

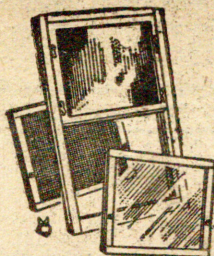

This lively topic will be discussed at the second annual open trade meeting sponsored by Illinois Automotive Association for independent repair shop men, garage shop men, car dealers and automotive wholesalers of the Chicago marketing area.

W. O. Anderson, service engineer for General Motors' Rochester Products Division, a pioneer in fuel injection engineering, will demonstrate the spark-ignition-engine fuel system on a fuel injection unit, aided by movies, at a session beginning at 7 p.m. at the Sheraton hotel.

Very little is known about the newest of automobile fuel systems. Mr. Anderson's discussion and demonstration is expected to throw some light on the direct-to-engine fuel systems, which eliminates the carburetor from a car.

With a new approach to conventions, Illinois Automotive Association adopted a streamlined schedule. Instead of a long, full-day session, the association's first of a series of 1957 meetings will be set for 3 p.m. and the last one for 8 p.m., thus permitting mechanics and automotive wholesalers to attend sessions without los-
